READY FOR THE CONFERENCE.

Much Interest Taken in the Meeting Scheduled for This Afternoon.

(Special to the Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—There is a feeling of anxious expectancy abroad regarding the Senatorial conference this afternoon, for although that particular gathering may not result in a termination of the long drawn out deadlock, there is a general belief that it will pave the way for that desideratum. All other plans have naturally come to a halt until it is seen what becomes of this all-momentous event, for as no one can figure what it will bring forth, it is, of course, a waste of time to continue manoeuvering on the old lines.

A significant feature of the affair is the evident alarm with which Grant and his managers view the outcome. Ten days ago, when the subject of an open conference was first broached, they professed to be heartily in accord with the idea, and even went so far as to say that they would favor a plan whereby ballots should be taken and the lowest candidate dropped after each roll call. That they were either bluffing at that time or that they have experienced a change of heart since is apparent by the uneasiness with which they regard this afternoon's meeting.

When the call for it was first circulated, Senator Cutter, the leading legislative spirit of the Grant forces, interposed a multitude of objections as to why the supporters of the man from San Diego should not participate, but the arguments were so shallow that even his own people would not accept them, and the result has been that the call has been signed by quite a number of Grant's people. Men like Cargill, Marvin and McDonald of Tuolumne, for example, declined to be hoodwinked on the proposition, for as they very sensibly declared, it was ridiculous to say that the conference was an out-and-out Burns proposition, for the simple reason that it had emanated from the camp of General Barnes, who is as much interested as anybody in preventing the Colonel from obtaining control of the situation.

Then again, it was argued that a conference conducted on the lines laid down in the call could not be considered derogatory to anybody's candidacy for the reason that it is expressly set forth that no resolution binding any members to set action shall be introduced, and, furthermore, it is also agreed by those joining in the conference that no effort shall be made to color it in the interests of any particular individual. There can be no logical reason, therefore, why the Grant people should not participate in such a discussion, in fact if they are sincere in their statements that they do not want the Legislature to adjourn without the election of a United States Senator, they should gladly accept the opportunity to come to some understanding on the subject.

What they fear, though, is that the conference will undoubtedly develop the fact that Burns is far and away the strongest candidate before the Legislature, and that being the case they realize that the sentiment is very liable to swing in his direction. The point is that while claims are made by Grant men that they can get votes out of the Bulla and Burns camps and vice versa by the Bulla and Barnes people, that they are expecting help from the Grant end of the fight, no one is claiming any votes from the Burns string. His strength is as firm, if not firmer, than it was the first day the candidates supporting him flocked to his banner, and it is the fact that even the small end of the wedge cannot be inserted into his barricade that is frightening the Grant managers.

It is but natural, anyhow, that the weaker should go to the stronger on a proposition like this and as the strength of every candidate but Burns is undoubtedly wavering it seems that nothing can ward off the inevitable much longer. If a caucus were held tomorrow there is no doubt that he would be easily elected and as this is something that cannot be said as regards any other candidate it can be readily seen what a commanding position he occupies.

NO NEW CANDIDATE.

Although some are claiming that the conference is liable to result in the favoring of a new candidate to whom the forces now deadlocked can go such a contingency is not very liable to occur. The campaign has been so protracted and expensive that injustice to each other, the present candidates are not disposed to consider the introduction of any outside elements and it is more than probable that sooner than permit such a revolution the hatchets in some of the rival camps would be buried and a combination made against any eleventh hour arrival.

In this connection too it may be remembered that despite all that has been said, Colonel Burns is unquestionably the second choice of a number of the Grant men. Take even the cases of Milton Green and Marshal Shine, two of Grant's managers, for example. It is a matter of comparative certainty that had not Green become tied up in Grant's fight he would have espoused the cause of Burns, while as for Shine he does not hesitate to openly declare that the Colonel holds the next place in his heart to the man from the far south.

There are many other Grant people in the same fix and it is not hard to see why this should be so. In the first place most of them belong to the practical political element, that is to say they are what is known as programmers or in other words they line up with the party machine. As therefore Colonel Burns is the embodiment of the Republican organization and has all the fighting elements of the party behind him it is but natural that they should look in his direction and with Grant out of the fight would naturally line up under his banner.

POLITICAL FEATURES.

Those who understand how party politics are conducted can thoroughly appreciate the situation. Every county committee is but a working part of the trunk organization and as there are other elections to come besides this one, it is but natural that those who are figuring on political futures should not want to buck up against the elements that can make or mar them later on. From this standpoint alone therefore Colonel Burns is head and shoulders above every other candidate and it also furnishes a reason why he cannot be turned down in the manner that some of the other contestants can now see they are going to be treated by their supporters.

But more potent than all this at this particular time is the fact that Governor Gage is behind Burns' candidacy. Although the Governor has never made an open declaration to that effect, he has evidenced such a position in countless ways, and those who recall the circumstances of the last campaign can appreciate why such is the case. Every force and influence at Colonel Burns' command were directed in Gage's favor, and that he was one of the principal, if not the main, factor in Gage's nomination and election no one can question.

THE GOVERNOR.

That the Governor should now desire to reciprocate is, therefore, but natural, especially in the case of a man of such strong character as Gage. Those who know him, either casually or thoroughly, have found that he is an individual who cannot be swerved when he is satisfied that he is in the right. The heaping of personal abuse upon Burns' head, therefore, has only had the effect of making Gage stand the more firmly by his side, and that the Governor is now determined to encompass the Colonel's election in every way he can do so is now more than certain.

The more the situation is reviewed, therefore, the more positive becomes the feeling that nothing can chek the advance of Burns towards the goal of victory. With every element in his favor, becoming better entrenched each day, and with the rival forces weakening and scattering as the end of the session draws near, the Colonel is indeed justified in smiling complacently and responding "All right" when questioned as to how his fight is going.

To those who have been on the scene of action from the beginning it seems scarcely credible that the session can have slipped away already, yet the fact remains that the sixty days limit expires the day after tomorrow. From that time on, therefore, a change will be noticeable in the way everything is being conducted.

THE FINAL RUSH.

Those who have participated in previous sessions will recall the frantic rush that occurs in those last few days when every member is endeavoring to save his bills from being sacrificed on file and at the same time is trying to so mold events that he can get away from Sacramento with all the celerity possible. As an instance of this it may be mentioned that during the past two weeks of the past session 200 bills were passed and sent to the Governor as against seventy-three passed during all the preceding life of the session.

One reason for this is of course that towards the wind-up all the measures are in a much better condition to be acted upon than at any previous time owing to the fact that they have been disposed of in committee and have worked their way through the second reading file. Then again, a bill at the end of the session does not receive anything like the attention paid to it during the earlier days. The first few measures that go through have to be thoroughly able to stand whatever tests may be made, for they are criticized and analyzed in minutiae, especially by the new members, whereas at the close of the session unless a measure has had particular attentioncalled to it or is upon its face a matter of great importance all that it needs is a favorable committee report to send it on its way to success.

GOVERNOR'S WORK.

If Governor Gage is going to keep up the system he has applied so far to the bills that have reached his hands, he will have to work night and day from now on, for he has not allowed a measure to pass through his hands without a most thorough investigation. The amount of work this involved is therefore simply terrific, and unless he is made of sterner stuff than any of his predecessors in the executive chair he will be in luck if he gets through the next thirty days without an attack of nervous prostration.

All sorts of rumors are current as to the action the Governor intends to take regarding certain important measures now in the public eye, but, as he is not in the habit of signaling what he is going to do, it is safe to say that every conclusion reached by outsiders is simply guesswork. Of course some lines can be drawn from the policy mapped out in his inaugural message and those he has since sent to the Legislature, and figuring on these it looks as if every measure calling for an appropriation will have to be proven a necessity before he affixes his signature to it.

UNIVERSITY BILLS.

There is a very strong rumor current that the University appropriation bills will never be able to run the gauntlet successfully—not because the Governor is not a firm friend and supporter of the institution, but because he thinks the State can ill afford the money asked for improvements and so forth at this particular time. This will be sad news to the Regents and those who have made so earnest a fight for the measures, but the spirit that prevailed in certain quarters in the Senate the other day when the appeals of the University for more money were attacked is said to also pervade the Governor's office.

A. Barrata of Oakland is taking a spin around the capital.

Superior Judge Hart is very low, and it is feared that his illness will terminate fatally.

T. J. Field of Monterey is among the faithful once more.

Lieutenant Governor Neff is out again after a sick spell that lasted about a month.

Jerry Burke is back from San Francisco.

County Clerk Jordan is still in evidence.

MELBA'S GRAND OPERA SEASON.

Sale of Seats Begins in San Francisco With a Rush.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The sale of season tickets for the season of grand opera which is to be inaugurated here by the Ellis Opera Company, with Mme. Melba as the leading star, commenced here today. The demand for tickets was so great that purchasers formed a line which extended almost a block and which did not seem to diminish until late in the day.

The season of grand opera promises to be a very successful one, and the old Grand Opera House, which has so long been devoted to drama, has been almost completely rebuilt, on the inside, for the finest theater in the country.

BROOKE AND GOMEZ CONFER.

HAVANA, Feb. 25.—General Maximo Gomez, accompanied by twenty-two aides-de camp, called upon General Brooke at his residence at Vedado at 10 o'clock this morning. He was received by the Governor-General, General Chaffee, the Chief of Staff, Major Kennon and Captain Page.

Gomez requested a private interview with General Brooke, and the others, with the exception of one aide-de-camp for General Gomez and Major Kennon for General Brooke, withdrew.

The conference lastd an hour and a half. Gomez said nothing to indicate that he does not adhere to the agreement arrived at with Robert B. Porter for the payment and disarmament of the Cuban troops, but he submitted some considerations verbally to General Brooke. Their nature was not disclosed.

The interview terminated with the understanding that Gomez is to put the substance of what he said in writing by Monday next.

KIPLING SOMEWHAT BETTER.

His Physicians Now More Hopeful.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The following bulletin was issued at 8:30 o'clock this morning:

"Mr. Kipling has been during the night, and is still very ill.

"E. H. JANEWAY,
"THEODORE DUNHAM."

Mr. Kipling was watched closely all night long, and there were physicians in his apartments continually. No news came from the sick room during the early morning hours, until 2:45 o'clock, when a bell boy was informed that the author was still alive and that at that hour was holding his own. Mr. Doubleday is quoted as saying at 6:30 A. M.: "Mr. Kipling is alive; that is hopeful. We are endeavoring to keep him alive by administering oxygen and by feeding him the blood extract of beef. The crisis, we believe, will come this morning. It is safe that if at the close of the day Mr. Kipling is alive, we have great hope for his recovery."

Late in the day close friends of Mr. Kipling guardedly expressed a hopefulness that was not pparent last night. Mr. Doubleday said that the author has passed a better night than could have been expected, and was visibly better and resting easier at 9:30 o'clock this morning, though still in a dangerous condition, and that no one could tell what any hour might bring forth. Still Mr. Doubleday had strong hopes that Mr. Kipling would pass through the crisis of the illness successfully.

Mrs. Kipling is said to be bearing up well under the terrible strain. The hotel where Kipling lies was again this morning crowded with callers—all sorts and conditions of men and women—tremendously eager to know how it fared with the author of the "White Man's Burden." It was generally understood that the patient was better than might have been expected. Dr. Dunham said no more bulletins would be issued until afternoon.

BRUTAL DEED OF SAN JOSE THUGS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 25.—Guisseppe Cadametoli is an Italian, 85 years old. For twenty-five years he has lived alone in a hut on Sunol street, near the Standard Oil Works. Last night three men attacked him in his hut and demanded the five or six thousand dollars in coin which they said he had concealed about his premises.

The old man declared he had no money, but they would not believe him and beat him nearly to death in attempting to make him confess where it was. Finally they left, either from fear of discovery or because they believed they had killed him. Today the old man hobbled to town and made the facts known, and officers are now searching for the criminals.

Cadamentoli's face and head is terribly beaten.

BOWMAN'S DRUG STORE WILL BE REMOVED.

The well-known drug firm of Bowman & Co., which for years has occupied the location on the northwest corner of Ninth and Broadway streets, in the Deiger block, will move into one of the stores left vacant by the M.J. Keller Co., in the Moller building, on Broadway, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets.

The removal will be completed by March 31st. The object for the change, as asserted by one of the members of the firm, is to secure a more central location.

BANQUET FOR GENERAL GOMEZ.

HAVANA, Feb. 25.—General Maximo Gomez will probably call on Governor-General Brooke today and will attend a meeting of the Cuban Assembly at Mariano this afternoon. The Cuban commander will be banqueted by the City Council this evening. Two hundred and fifty covers will be laid.

SENATOR QUAY'S TRIAL POSTPONED.

Prosecution Is Not Ready to Proceed.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27.—On motion of District Attorney Rothermel, the Quay conspiracy trial has been postponed until April 10th. The District Attorney did not state his reason for the postponement. Though interest in the trial was intense throughout the city, there was no crowding in the court, because of an order issued by the court that only the lawyers interested in the case, the panel of witnesses and a limited number of newspaper men should be admitted.

Senator Quay and his son entered the court room, accompanied by their counsel, Rufus E. Shapeley, A. S. L. Shields and David T. Watson of Pittsburg. The presence of the latter was a surprise to those in attendance, as it was generally understood that he had retired from the case.

District Attorney Rothermel and his associates held a brief consultation, at the conclusion of which he said he desired that the trial of Mr. Quay be postponed. He was not ready to proceed with the trial, and asked that the date for it be set for April 10th.

Mr. Shapeley of counsel for the defense opposed the motion. He said their witnesses had been subpoenaed and every preparation made to bring the trial to an immediate conclusion. A postponement at this time, he said, would cause great inconvenience and would be unfair to his clients.

Judge Reitler announced that he would grant the motion, inasmuch as the District Attorney was not prepared to proceed, and named April 10th as the date of the trial.

Senator Quay on leaving the court room expressed his disappointment at the unexpected deferring of the trial. He declined to discuss the matter further, simply adding that he was extremely anxious to have the case disposed of and that he had hoped that it would be taken up today and quickly brought to a conclusion.

District Attorney Rothermel, when seen after the trial, refused to state the reason for his request for a postponement.

Attorney Shapeley, for Mr. Quay, said after leaving the court room, that his client and himself and associate counsel were fully prepared for the immediate trial of the case, and confident of their ability to dissipate any evidence which might be presented by the prosecution. There could be but one result, and that would have been acquittal.

Touching on the evidence adduced at the preliminary hearing, Mr. Shapeley had placed much importance on the entries on the memorandum book of Cashier Hopkins, which showed a number of credits to the account of Senator Quay, and indicated many transactions between Hopkins and the Senator. Information had recently come into the possession of Mr. Shapeley which, he declared, proved conclusively that these entries were wholly false.

The entries would never be admitted as evidence by the court, as their falsity could be clearly proven. Investigation, he continued, had shown that Hopkins for a long time had been defrauding Senator Quay, and many entries in the memorandum book found in his effects had been made for the purpose of deceiving not only Senator Quay, but also the officials of the bank. Mr. Shapeley said he entertained no doubt of the prompt acquittal of his clients when the case shall come up.

Mr. Shapeley further stated that the few books of the People's Bank in existence are in such condition that it is impossible for any living person to tell anything about Senator Quay's account, or of the accounts of any other person. Some pages of the books in existence have been torn out, and the remaining pages have been deliberately falsified and forged to such an extent that they would be held inadmissible by the court.

ASSEMBLY WILL HAVE A QUORUM

A Drastic Resolution By Dibble Is Adopted.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—In the Assembly this morning, the chaplain being absent, prayer was dispensed with.

The Committee on Ways and Means made its regular weekly report, the recapitulation of which is as follows:

Total appropriations referred to the committee to date, $4,433,009.21; total appropriations reported favorably, $3,528,184.23; total appropriations reported unfavorably, $486,126; total appropriations referred to other committees, $408,845; total appropriations reported without recommendation, $154,500; total appropriations reported with recommendation that they be withdrawn, $526,542.05; total appropriations remaining in the hands of this committee, $1,027,811.98.

On Dibble's motion the Assembly chamber was placed at the disposal of the Republican members of the Senate and Assembly at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which hour the Republican Senatorial conference will be held.

Dibble introduced a second resolution setting forth that it is the sense of the Assembly that no committees shall be excused during the remainder of the session, and that no committee shall be allowed to sit, except conference committees, during the sessions of the House; also that no member shall be excused from attendance except for sickness of himself or family. The resolution was adopted. The difficulty of securing a quorum of the Assembly during the last week was the reason for the adoption of the resolution.

A resolution adopted by the Glen Ellen Grange of Sonoma county was received, demanding that all useless commissions and sinecure positions under the State be abolished, and that the salaries of all State officials and their deputies be so adjusted as to secure a reduction of at least 25 per cent.

The Assembly passed Caminetti's bill, 983, authorizing and permitting the use of the Great Seal of the State by the Society of Native Sons.

THE PRESIDENT CHANGES ARMY REGULATIONS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The President has made several amendments to the regulations governing the examination of enlisted men for appointments as Second Lieutenants in the Army. Accordingly the usual preliminary examination of such applicants will be held on March 20 of each year, instead of September 1, as under the former regulations.

The advancement of the date of examination is supposed to be due to the pressing necessity for officers in consequence of the war. Soldiers desiring to take the competitive examination must have completed two years of service prior to March 30 next, and their age on that date must not exceed 30 years.

The requirement of holding such examinations to be held in the various military departments at such places as may be selected by the commanding officers. These are the principal changes in the regulations.

Eight Thousand of Them Have Had Enough of Fighting.

MANILA, Feb. 27, 4:55 p. m.—Two commissioners who returned from Maloras under a flag of truce today reported that 8,000 rebels are anxious to surrender.

They also express the belief that Aguinaldo is inclined to accept pacific overtures.

Major-General Otis did not receive the commissioners.

FILIPINOS SPITTING FORTH MORE VENOM

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

HONG KONG, Feb. 27. — The Filipino Government has issued another virulent anti-American decree, in which the following passages occur:

"The American guns respect neither honor nor property, but barbarously massacre women and children.

"Manila has witnessed the most atrocious massacres, confiscating the properties and savings of the people at the point of the bayonet and shooting the defenseless, accompanied by odious acts of abomination, repugnant barbarism and racial hatred worse than the doings in Carolina. Unless you conjure a holy war for independence, you are only worthy to be slaves and pariahs. Proclaim before the civilized world that you will fight to the death against American treachery and brute force. Even the women should if necessary.

"American professions and promises are pure hypocrisy. They covet the spoils of this patrimony of our race, wishing to implant here a more irritating and barbarous dominion than in the past."

CANDIDATES ARE WILLING TO ALLOW A CONFERENCE.

(Special to the Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—The war clouds have blown over, and although that calm, holy place that the poets sing about can scarcely be said to prevail, there is at least an end temporarily to all the "gun talk" that has been going the rounds during the past couple of days. The reason, therefore, is the very simple one that the pseudo-combatants are here no longer, for Major McLaughlin has gone on a visit to his family at Santa Cruz while Sam Leake has returned to San Francisco to attend to some pressing business matters at Call headquarters.

This, therefore, leaves Grove Johnson the only principal on the scene of action, and the blood has been taken out of his eye by the manner in which his colleagues in the Legislature have been handing him a wide variety of choice bouquets ever since the notable incident of the "Grove the Penman" cartoon. Resolutions in his honor have gone on the records of the Assembly, the anti-cartoon bill he inspired has been made a law and to cap the climax, he has been given a complimentary Republican vote for United States Senator. Under these circumstances Johnson has come out of the affair with flying colors and in the recesses of his heart he is probably not very sorry that the incident happened, for it has made things come his way with a rush that would not have otherwise been possible.

Now that bowie knives have been sheathed, therefore, and shotguns and revolvers restored to their racks in the family armory, everything has settled down to the hum-drum of business again, and although some events are happening that would have been deemed "sensations" a couple of weeks ago, they seem quite tame compared with the wild and woolly occurrences of those days of gore. What is going on now, though, will doubtless prove a hundred per cent more effective than all the more showy business, for to a student of the fight it is apparent that light is at last shining in upon what has so long been a chaotic situation.

In the first place a caucus is now inevitable. The conference that has been arranged for Monday, while it cannot be considered a caucus, is at least a big step in that direction, for it does not seem possible that a deliberation of the description proposed can bring about any other conclusion than that the only way in which the deadlock can be broken is by the time-honored and logical method of holding a caucus. Here is what the Call recites and it is certainly easy enough to read between the lines:

"Whereas, It is nearing the end of the Legislative Session and there has been no election of a United States Senator, and

"Whereas, It is the duty of the Republican members of this session to elect a United States Senator, or at least to leave nothing undone that is honorable to accomplish this end, and

"Whereas, a general conference might assist in arriving at the desired result, and in the hope that by an interchange of ideas progress may be made towards a solution of the question, we hereby signify our assent to attend such a conference, to be held in the Supreme Court room on Monday the 27th day of February, at 4 P. M. and with the distinct understanding and agreement at such conference.

"One.—That only Republican members of this Legislature shall be present.

"Two.—That no particular candidate's candidacy shall be advocated.

"Three.—That no vote shall be taken as to any candidate or upon any nomination with a distinct understanding that nothing done and no vote taken shall be binding.

DICKINSON.
MOREHOUSE.
SHORTRIDGE.
GILLETTE.
STRATTON.

The anxiety on everybody's part to arrive at something other than the senseless vote that is being cast day day was shown by the ease with which signatures were obtained to the call, for before it left the Senate for the Assembly it had obtained the signatures of Dickinson, Gillette, Shortridge, Morehouse, Stratton, Simpson, Hoey, Rowell, Laird, Bettman, Burnette, Wolfe, Troutt, and Flint. The way those who signed the call in the Senate have been voting as follows:

For Bulla—Gillette.

For Barnes—Dickinson, Morehouse, Stratton.

For Burns—Shortridge, Simpson, Hoey, Laird, Bettman, Burnett, Wolfe.

For Bard—Flint, Rowell.

For Grant—Troutt.

It will be noticed that there is only one man from the Grant camp despite the fact that the San Diegan was loudest of all in his declarations that an open conference should be held at the time it was first proposed. He is inclined to fight shy of it now though for he realizes that it is almost certain to result in a caucus and when that is once held he knows his connections with the Senatorial contest will come to a speedy termination.

As for Bulla, he said when the call was presented to him that he had no objections whatever to the conference, but being a caididate, he thought the ethics of his position demanded that he should not take part in it. An independent movement has been started in his behalf, by the way, with Gillette in the Senate and Valentine in the House as a steering committee, but it will not be able to accomplish anything until it is seen what develops at the Monday conference.

The Grant steering committee of Smith in the Senate and Radcliffe in the House has abandoned its work in despair, for no headway whatever could be made. Every member approached showed an aversion to taking part in a conference that it was patent from the onset was managed in Grant's interests, and no stronger proof has ever been given of the utter hopelessness of Grant's cause than by the way every one is now shrinking from associating himself in any manner with the San Diegan's camp.

Summing up the situation, therefore, it may be said that the Grant men and the Bulla men, having each in vain attempted to bring about a general conference, the other elements have now taken it in hand and are meeting with the most unwonted success. It will be noticed that of the quintette promulgating the call three—Dickinson, Morehouse and Stratton—are Barnes men. Shortridge is from the Barnes camp, and Gillette one of the Bulla forces. It cannot therefore be said that Burns is inspiring the whole affair, and those invited to participate will not be able to advance any reasonable excuse for declining to do so.

THE BETTING.

That everybody realizes the conference marks one of the last stepping-stones toward Burns' success is shown by the terrific cut made on the odds against him in the pool rooms as soon as the news of the call reached there, for he was at once played from a 1 to 3 to a 1 to 4 candidate. This is the way the odds are posted now:

Burns	1 to 4
Barnes	3 to 1
Grant	4 to 1
Bulla	10 to 1
Stolt	20 to 1
Paterson	15 to 1
Knight	25 to 1
Bard	25 to 1
Felton	25 to 1
Estee	25 to 1
Johnson	40 to 1
Waymire	50 to 1

CAMINETTI RESOLUTION.

Apropos of the Senatorial fight, the Caminetti resolution asking for a memorial to the Legislatures of the several States requesting a petition to Congress for amendments to the national constitution providing for the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, is creating a great deal of discussion and debate.

The way the matter stands now, the United States Senate declines to consider the constitutional amendments presented to it in favor of the change. Under the Federal constitution, though, Congress must assent to what is requested by two-thirds of the States and Territories, and Caminetti's plan is to put that leverage to work.

The fight it proving a very hard one, as all the orators are taking a turn at the game. Those in favor of the resolution are holding up the present deadlock as an argument on their side of the issue, while those opposing it say that the proposed plan would simply leave the Senatorship at the mercy of the boss who dominated the convention, thus making it a case of out of the frying pan into the fire.

ALAMEDA DELEGATION.

The Alameda delegation is in more trouble. County Assessor Dalton is here saying that there has been a mistake made about the extra help allowed him, for he claims to be one man short of what was agreed upon. Where the dispute arises is as regards his chief deputy. Under the new arrangement he was allowed a chief deputy at $2,400 and two deputies at $1,200 in addition to a lot of other extra help.

Now Senator Stratton's understanding was that the allowance of $2,400 for a chief deputy meant that the salary of the present chief deputy was to be raised from $1,800 to $2,400. Dalton, however, claims that it is a newly created office altogether, and several of the members are backing him up.

Senator Taylor, though, happens to have retained some remembrance of the delegation's caucus upon which it plainly appears that the proposition was to increase the salary of the present chief deputy $600 a year and not to create a new office in that regard. He and Stratton will oppose any motion to reconsider the proposition, so although Dalton is working hard among the other members, his labors will go for naught.

WATER FRONT BILL.

Senator Leavitt's water front bill has reached the Assembly, where it may come up today, as the Assembly bill covering the same points was reported favorably from Assemblyman Knowland's Committee on Commerce and Navigation.

There is considerable speculation as to why the water front attorneys are interfering in the matter again, for it was understood that when they got Stratton to amend the bill for them in the Senate they were satisfied. Now, however, they are urging the members of the House not to vote upon it until they have an opportunity to present some further arguments.

DEAF AND DUMB CHILDREN.

Superintendent Warren Wilkinson of the Home for Deaf and Dumb at Berkeley, has lost the fight he has been making against the bill whereby deaf and dumb children are to be educated in the public schools of the State. If the experiment proves successful it means, of course, the closing of his institution, so Senator Stratton, who introduced the bill, has been deluged with dispatches from Wilkinson urging him to withdraw it.

Senator Stratton had set his heart on the bill, though, so he wrote to Wilkinson saying that, although the State institution was located in Alameda county, he did not think that should prevent him from supporting a meritorious measure. He then proceeded to fight for the bill in committee, where he had the report changed from an unfavorable to a favorable one, and last night, after a lengthy speech, succeeded in getting it through the Senate by a vote of all the members present but Rowell.

COYOTE BILL.

The coyote bill has got through another Senate, the debate over it being very lively and at times amusing, especially when Shortridge had the floor. The vote upon it was as follows:

Ayes—Bettman, Boyce, Bulla, Burnett, Chapman, Curtin, Cutler, Davis, Dickinson, Freney, Flint, Jones, Laird, Langford, Morehouse, Nutt, Pace, Rowell, Shortridge, Simpson, Smith—21.

Noes—Ashe, Braunhart, Doty, Dwyer, Gillette, Hall, Hoey, La Rue, Luchsinger, Sims, Trout, Wolfe—11.

Ashe changed from no to aye and gave notice of reconsideration.

NOTES.

The appropriation bill is in at last. It calls for $280,000 less than two years ago.

Mayor Phelan, Charles L. Patton and J. A. Filcher are here to appear before the Finance Committee of the Senate regarding the $500,000 appropriation for the Paris Exposition. The committee wants to know who will have control of the expenses and what will become of the surplus.

County Assessor Dalton is around again. Ex-Supreme Justice Van Fleet is paying a visit to town.

Mrs. Clara Foltz is taking in the Senate sessions.

The Senate has refused to concur in the Assembly bill raising the salaries of the Superior Judges in San Francisco from $5,000 to $5,000 per annum.

Adam Andrews of Shasta water fame is on hand.

City Superintendent J. W. McClymonds of Oakland is paying a visit to State Superintendent Kirk.

SALARY FUND OF ASSEMBLY TO BE REPLENISHED

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—Section 2 of article 4 of the constitution was suspended by the Senate this morning and Senator Stratton allowed to introduce a bill relating to the election laws.

The Assembly suspended the constitution and introduced Assembly bills 997 and 998, providing for the replenishing of the contingent and salary fund of the Assembly.

The rules were suspended and the bills passed as urgency measures. They were at once sent to the Senate and rushed through. The bills provide for appropriations aggregating $19,000.

The Senate had under discussion this morning Assembly bill 914, which provides that all printing done for the several departments of the State government at the State printing office shall be charged to the department ordering such work.

Powell introduced an amendment providing that the State University shall have its printing done independent of the State printing office. The amendment was voted down.

The Senate has adjourned until Monday at 11:30 o'clock. The Assembly will hold an afternoon session for the purpose of considering the second reading files.

THEORIZING ON DEWEY'S MESSAGE

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A suggestion that found currency in naval circles today, to account for Admiral Dewey's dispatch relative to the Oregon yesterday, was that he had just received some of the newspapers of date a month back from the United States. Those conveyed the impression that there was no need for the Oregon at Manila in view of the then rosnate outlook for an early settlement of the trouble there.

It was therefore with a view to impressing the department that the same necessity existed for the Oregon's presence at Manila now as when he first made the request for the ship that he cabled the department as he did yesterday.

It may be noted in this case that, should the Admiral be confirmed before the expiration of the present Congress as the Admiral of the United States, he will outrank any foreign naval commander on the Asiatic station. The squadron of the British navy there is commanded by a Vice Admiral. The Government, it is said, does not send the high ranked officers to sea at all. With this view of the case, it would seem only proper that, being the ranking officer of the entire station, Dewey should have a vessel with fighting ability second to none in the combined fleets in Asiatic waters.

DAY APPOINTED CIRCUIT JUDGE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The President today sent these nominations to the Senate.

Jeremiah H. McCarthy, Surveyor of Customs, Boston and Charleston districts.

William R. Day of Ohio, to be United States Circuit Court Judge for the Sixth Judicial District.

Also a number of promotions in the army of the United States.

GOVERNOR GAGE WATCHING THE EXPENDITURES.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—The sessions in both Senate and Assembly this morning were dull affairs, many of the members being absent.

In the Assembly messages from the Governor of approval and disapproval of bills were received. The Governor has disapproved Assembly bills 293, 168, 257, and 288.

Assembly bill 293 carried an appropriationof $11,000 for furnishing the offices of the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

The Governor considers that the expenditure of such a sum for this purpose would be an act of unwarranted extravagance.

Assembly bill No. 158 provides for the effective quarantine of infested fruit trees.

Assembly bills 287 and 288 increased the number of deputies of the Supreme Court Clerk and increased the salary of the Deputy Sheriff's clerk. Both of these courses were considered by the Governor to be unnecessary.

The Governor approved Assembly bill 308 which amends section 2,282, 2,293, and 2,293 of chapter 3 title 5 of the Political Code relating to the State Library and Assembly bill 940 appropriating $15,000 for the purpose of constructing a sewerage system at Folsom State prison.

WRANGLE OVER THE ARMY BILL.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—There was a little hitch in the agreement on the army bill today, Senator Gorman insisting that the agreement was that all the increases made should cease July 1, 1901.

This is not provided for in the bill reported, and an amendment has been prepared, and will be offered, adding another section making definite provision that all increases shall cease on the date mentioned, and the army shall be reduced to the number of officers and men provided for previous to the war with Spain. The additional cadets appointed will be retained in this provision.

The additional section which Senator Gorman asked for has proven unsatisfactory to Senator Cockrell, the leading Democratic member of the committee, and consequently the proposition to put it in is off, unless it can be drawn in such a manner as not to interefere with the regular army.

Meanwhile the bill is to be proceeded with and conferences will be held to see if any adjustment can be made.

An effort to get an agreement to vote on the army bill at 3 o'clock on Monday failed. Senator Cockrell then made a speech in favor of the bill.

Senator Cockrell explained the increases made by the compromise bill. The artillery increase was essential and therefore justifiable. He said the permanent increase for the entire army would amount to a little over 10,000, giving a standing army of about 38,000 after July 1, 1901.

Mr. Cockrell defended the increase in the staff as necessary in connection with the general increase in numbers in the army. Likewise the general officers provided for were also necessary. There would be no burden on the people, and Mr. Cockrell thought the bill should be accepted.

It was the best bill for the reorganization of the army that had been presented in the Senate since he was a member of that body, in 1875. If the present opportunity was lost, so acceptable a bill would not again be secured.

FARMERS ARE ALL CRYING FOR WATER.

Many Wells Being Dug to Irrigate the Ranches.

Resume of News About Our Neighbors in the Country.

Below will be found interesting news items from the country towns:

HAPPENINGS IN HAYWARDS.

The Meek estate is having a dam built across the San Lorenzo creek for the purpose of saving the water so that it may be used for irrigating purposes. The dam will be forty feet across and seven feet deep, and the water will be taken out in a flume 100 feet in length. The sub-dams will be permanent, but the upper parts will be built in sections so as to be removeable at pleasure. The water will be taken out alongside of the Boden property.

The dry season we have been having has made the question of irrigation an important one, and some of our farseeing fruit growers are going to take no chances. The undertaking begun by the Meek estate is the largest of its kind in this vicinity, and it is expected to get enough water for irrigating about 700 acres.

MEMORIAL TABLET.

The memorial tablet plan inaugurated by Hayward Lodge of Workmen has been taken up by lodges all over the United States. Last week an order was received for one from Indiana, and this week Dr. Browning, who originated the idea, received a letter from the Supreme Master Workman on the subject.—Haywards Review.

DOINGS IN SAN LEANDRO.

Henry Tasto, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tasto, died suddenly at the family residence on Davis stret on Tuesday night. The deceased had been suffering from rheumatism for some time, and on that evening the disease located in the region of the heart with the result that in a short time he died. He was a bright, industrious young man, and his parents have the sympathy of their many friends in their loss.

RAISED THE FLAG.

On Washington's birthday the new flagpole which Colonel Hastings has recently erected in front of his residence was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. The school children of San Leandro and their parents were present when the beautiful new flag was unfurled "unto the breezes" and gave a lusty cheer for Old Glory. Colonel Hastings welcomed the visitors cordially, after which the flag was saluted by the children and several patriotic songs were sung and short addresses made. The Colonel then distributed to each child present a bag of candy, and this sent the little folks home rejoicing.

FARMERS ARE IRRIGATING.

The first orchard in this vicinity to be irrigated is that of T. P. and A. B. Cary on Estudillo avenue. At the northeastern boundary of the orchard there are several lagoons and pools formed by springs and the overflow from the filters at Lake Chabot. A Burton centrifugal pump with a capacity of 900 gallons per minute is at work lifting the water on to the land some forty-five feet above it. The power to operate the plant is electricity supplied by the electric railway. Mr. A. B. Cary has been at work on the problem of power for some weeks, and it has been a difficult one. The gas engine, when but a few horse-power is required, answers very well, but when, as in this instance, it is necessary to have twenty-five horse-power, it is very seldom that it works satisfactorily. So one of the motors formerly in use on the cars is used, and the motor and pump work very satisfactorily. Superintendent Gustafson of the railway has devoted some little time this week to getting the plant in working order, and his services and thorough knowledge of hydraulics, mechanics and electricity have been much appreciated by both T. P. and A. B. Cary. It is estimated that sufficient water can be raised to thoroughly irrigate five acres per day.

L. C. Morehouse and P. E. Bowles were examining the large Tomkins orchard on Tuesday. Both gentlemen are directors of the First National Bank of Oakland, and this property is now owned by that corporation. The orchard will probably be irrigated.

O. Morgan says that a very good supply of water can be secured at a depth of about 125 feet and the cost for boring will be about $1.50 per foot.

E. R. Stone will bore one 10-inch well near his big barn and two 8-inch wells in the large field west of his house.

O. Morgan is boring a well for A. J. Collins on his orchard near Hayward.

I. H. Begier is making arrangements to irrigate the Gawne orchard.

C. M. Buck of San Lorenzo proposes putting in a plant.

J. Enos will have a well bored by O. Morgan next week.—San Leandro Reporter.

AFFAIRS IN NILES.

While employed cutting trees in the canyon Friday, Mr. Brown of the Mission met with an accident which might have cost him his life. Fearing a tree he was cutting would fall down the embankment into the creek, he hitched his team to it. When it fell, however, it pulled the team down and rolled over the man himself. He escaped with a few bruises, but one of his horses was killed by a big branch being run through his body.

NEED WATER BADLY.

The orchardists of this vicinity have decided not to take any chances this year on their water supply and are putting in pumping plants. Among the places to be thus supplied are the Chisholm, Donovan, Jones, Shinn and Mortimer, the latter to be put in by J. C. Shinn, who has leased the place. Joe Tyson is also having his plant refitted for work. The digging and ditch work has all been done by the Richards Bros., while various parties have done the boring.

Among others who contemplate putting in wells are Robt. Smith, C. H. Hatch and H. Overacker of Centerville.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.

The railroad company has made big improvements at Irvington. The roadbed has been lowered twenty-four inches, cutting the grade from 58.2 feet to the mile to 26.4 feet. The street has been lowered to correspond, and the earth thus removed has been placed at the upper end of the house track so that cars may be loaded and unloaded from wagons. The switches are to be lengthened sixty feet or more to reduce the sharpness of the curve. The cattle yard is to be removed and enlarged also.—Niles Herald.

NOTES FROM PLEASANTON.

Monday afternoon thirty Chinese laborers arrived from Sacramento for the hop fields here. These Chinese are under the employ of the Sun Sin Company, who have taken the contract to cultivate and work the hops, as well as string the vines and keep them in proper shape until September, when the picking season will begin. In conversation with Nat Walter, one of the Hop Company, on Wednesday regarding these laborers, he remarked that it was entirely against the principles of the Hop Company to employ foreign labor when it could be helped, but owing to the fact that the work in the hop fields heretofore had not been properly executed and that the same had to be done within a certain time, and that it was impossible to secure white labor to do the same amount of work for a reasonable price, they were compelled to let the contract to the Chinese. "Could we have let the contract to white labor for the same amount," said he, "we would willingly have done so. As it is, when it is figured down these Chinese will each average $1.50 per day in the end, but it is hard to make the whites understand this unless you get down and figure it out for them."

BURIED UNDER GRAVEL.

While at work in a gravel pit at Irvington, James Smith was buried by a slide, but was only slightly injured. At the time of the accident there were several men at work in the pit. When the bank began to cave all made good their escape save Smith, who was caught by the falling earth and buried face downward. It required two hours for his fellow workmen to dig him out.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Wednesday evening Nick Bernal, while visiting at the residence of Joseph Nevis, met with an accident that was quite painful and came near causing him to bleed to death before the arrival of a physician.

Bernal was sitting in a chair upon the porch and was leaning back against the house in a tilted position when the chair suddenly slipped from under him. As he fell the back of his head came in contact with the catch upon the window blind, tearing a long gash and severing a small artery, causing the blood to flow very freely.

Medical assistance was at once started for, but before Dr. Cope, who had first been looked for, could be found, other parties summoned Dr. Hershiser, who, as soon as possible stopped the flow and relieved Bernal of as much pain as possible.

Four stitches were required to sew up the wound.—Pleasanton Bulletin.

HEALTH OFFICE DOING GOOD WORK.

The chemical and bacteriological departments of the Board of Health are now in full blast. The former is analyzing oils which are sold for food purposes by grocers and others in this city.

Many of the samples worked upon have been shown to be vile adulterations. Before long the Board will take steps to inform the public of the brands of this species of table goods which are deleterious.

In the bacteriological department may be found proof that the physicians of this city are beginning to realize the aid which they can receive from the work which has just been inaugurated, that of determining from the cotton swabs furnished whether or not patients contain microbes or deadly diseases.

Health Officer Dunn is pleased with the aid which the office is giving the profession, and, in turn, medical gentlemen are greatly pleased with the department which has now become invaluable.

HE IS OPPOSED TO EXPANSION.

John J. Valentine Gives His Views to Berkeley People.

John J. Valentine, president of Wells, Fargo & Co., delivered a lecture last evening in the First Congregational Church of Berkeley, on the subject, "Imperial Democracy—The Annexation of the Philippines."

"That colonization has heretofore been unsuccessful," the speaker began, "is seen from the fact that three-fourths of the people engaged in colonial service are worn out in five years. The disastrous effect of tropical climates weakens and debilitates the white race, rendering it quite unfit for active service. France's colonies are a failure, Spain's possessions have completely ruined the mother country; sickness, squalor, misery and debt is all they have to show for the greed of conquest.

"It has taken the race a million years to rise from the level of beasts to men; it took just fifteen minutes for men to fall to the level of beasts when the lust of war swept over the nation last summer. That was developed from four sources—yellow journalism and hysteria, vengeance and ferocity, militarism and despotism, ignorance, ambition and greed. The contemptibility of its origin has recently been brought to light by state documents which show that a few days before the declaration of hostilities Spain had ceded practically all that we have since gained by bloodshed, and that had we been forbearing, the force of words would have done what swords were called upon to do, for the flag of Spain would have come down without the report of so much as a single gun. Nevertheless we have the heritage of our strife, and now we propose to carry the work of infamy one step further by inaugurating a policy of despotic colonization, the annexation of the Philippines.

"Notwithstanding Lord Beresford to the contrary, the islands can never be a subject of interest to our people. They belong to Asia and can never be made an integral part of the United States. Lord Beresford is an English royalist, and, carrying his principles out, we should undermine our Government merely to attract the attention of European monarchs and join in the groveling, grabbing contest which they are carrying on. We might adopt imperialism, but would that be in accordance with representative government?"

"Equal Rights to All, and Special Privileges to None"

And the following platform adopted by the DEMOCRATIC CITY CONVENTION:

PLATFORM

The Democracy of the city of Oakland announces the following principles:

First—The city taxes are too high, and we will reduce them if we have the power.

Second—We consider the public schools as the bulwark of American liberty, and we intend to support and maintain them to the fullest extent.

Third—We are in favor of all kinds of public improvements, and the purchasing of a park that will meet with the approval of the people.

Fourth—We are in favor of the completion of the work on the West Oakland marshes, and the improvements of Independence Square in East Oakland.

Fifth—Considering the oppressive water rates in Oakland, we are in favor of the acquisition by the city of the water supply, and to the accomplishment of this end we instruct our candidates to use every lawful means.

Sixth—Until Oakland shall acquire its own water supply, we are in favor of fixing the rates justly and fairly, and at the same time are of the opinion that the present rates are too high and ought to be reduced.

Seventh—We are also in favor of the acquisition by the city of its gas and electrical works.

Eighth—In consequence of the city's litigations, many thousands of dollars have been spent unnecessarily for outside attorneys. We are opposed to this, and if our nominee for City Attorney is elected, we promise for him that he will properly attend to the city's litigation without additional counsel.

Ninth—We are in favor of the improvement of our streets, and think they should be put and maintained in the best condition at the least expense.

Tenth—We endorse the eight hour law recently passed in the House of Representatives.

Eleventh—We are in favor of the most rigid economy in every department of the city's government.

Whereas, The city of Oakland is now organized under a freeholders' charter which was framed at a time when its municipal affairs were subject to and controlled by general laws; and

Whereas, By the amendment to the State Constitution of 1896 it is permitted to manage its municipal affairs without reference to general laws and entirely independent of them; and

Whereas, By reason of the former state of the constitution, the present charter is very defective and requires to be amended in many particulars relating to municipal affairs; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Democratic party of the city of Oakland is in favor of securing action by the City Council, to the end that proper amendments may be prepared and submitted to the people for ratification, in order that the city of Oakland may receive the full measure of benefits derived from the said amendment to the State Constitution, and thereby repeal many general laws now applicable, which arrest the development of the city and prevent its citizens from correcting many abuses in the administration of its affairs.

MONDAY.....FEBRUARY 27, 1899.

The Examiner prints an article asking, "Does gold grow?" The average individual will have to confess that he doesn't know, as he has never been able to keep it long enough to give it an opportunity.

Some of the Oakland pastors want Governor Gage to set aside a day upon which prayers for rain will be generally offered throughout the State. It would be rather a dangerous experiment, for if by any chance we all united in the supplication and the rain did not come it would give us a bad record by tending to show that Californians are not in very good standing.

Dewey's declaration that he will not be a candidate for the Presidency will make McKinley, Reed, Bryan, Cleveland, Roosevelt and all the other aspirants for that high office breathe easier. Although it has never been definitely known whether Dewey is a Republican or a Democrat, the fact is nevertheless appreciated that he could probably run on even the Populist ticket and be elected.

It scarcely seems possible that Germany can be figuring on any intervention at the Philippines, yet it is hard to explain why Dewey and Otis are both so anxious to immediately obtain reinforcements. It does not appear reasonable that their alarm is created by any movements of the rebels, for the crushing defeat we inflicted upon them was practically without loss on our side, thus signifying that the troops we already have on the ground are amply able to cope with them. However, even if Germany is figuring on sticking her nose into our affairs over there, we are ready for her—she is a little bigger and consequently will be harder to whip than Spain, but it is a sure thing that we could make sausage of her before we get through.

HEBREWS FOR EXPANSION.

It would be an unfortunate error for any one to draw from the fact that President Jordan lately delivered in a San Francisco synagogue one of his addresses against the law of national gravitation, otherwise called expansion, the inference that American Hebrew sentiment is with him on that issue. As well might the inference be drawn that the hosts of that occasion approved or countenanced President Jordan's unexpected lapse into personal abuse and derision of America's great war President, William McKinley. Neither deduction would be just to one of the most progressive and patriotic and always courteous classes of American citizens.

On the matter of expansion, American Hebrew sentiment, like that of other divisions of Americans, is divided, although it is safe to say that there was not a hearer of Dr. Jordan on that occasion of his departure from his customary high tone of philosophical discussion into the commonplaces of demagogical personalities who did not deeply deplore it as a matter of fact, out of some half a dozen San Francisco rabbis of large following and of high repute, only one thus far has recorded himself as opposed to President McKinley's wise and conservative aims for having this nation perform the duties toward humanity and the world which the successful issue of the war into which he entered most unwillingly has placed upon it. For the great majority of at least the pulpit leaders of Jewish thought the words of Rabbi Nieto, of the Taylor street synagogue, speaks more correctly than Dr. Jordan even in his better moods. At the banquet of the B'nai B'rith Grand Lodge to its new president, Sigmund Sichel, in the Palace Hotel last Wednesday night, the Rev. Dr. Nieto said:

"I must say at the outset on the subject of expansion that I disagree with the learned and distinguished Dr. Jordan and his disciple, Rabbi Voorsanger. I am in favor of this country retaining the Philippine Islands. We owe it to the people of those islands, as well as to our own citizens, to pursue such a policy. I say most emphatically that this country should have a pronounced Oriental policy, with the possession of the Philippines as a good beginning."

ABUSING PRESIDENT M'KINLEY

There may be something more than mere coincidence in the fact that vitriolic vials are opened and aimed at President McKinley at the very moment when ex-President Cleveland is announced as an aspirant for a third term. There may be more than coincidence, too, in the circumstance that abuse of the Republican war President, couched in almost identical terms, simultaneously starts from David Starr Jordan of Stanford University on the rostrum in California, and from Henry U. Johnson, a Republican Representative from Indiana on the floor of Congress.

Cleveland, if he is to run again for the office from which he is excluded by every consideration of patriotism and of decent respect for the example and precept of Washington, and for the unwritten traditions of the Republic, must pose and run as a mugwump. As a Democrat, from the point of view of that party's trend and policies, he has no standing whatever. Nor has he any status as a war Democrat. Many members of that party loyally supported McKinley in the recent war, and it has been a work of the greatest difficulty for the Democrat partisan leaders to get the rank and file of really patriotic Democrats to oppose the nation's wise and necessary measures for the reaping of the fruits of the country's brilliant triumph of arms by land and sea.

Therefore, Cleveland's only hope of forcing his superannuated personality upon the attention of the country is by the accession to this banner of warped, cranky and disgruntled Republicans. It is evidently thought, how erroneously a little time will show, that the number of Republicans who can be stampeded to Cleveland by the bug-a-boo of "imperialism" will be considerable and may suffice to offset the Democrats whom he has hopelessly alienated.

To this end, apparently, Republicans have been incited to raise the standard of revolt against McKinley. It is to be no longer, on the part of the opponents of expansion, a campaign of argument and education, but a campaign of abuse. Abuse of McKinley, whether by a Pacific Coast college president or by an inland Republican statesman, is welcomed by this new alignment of political interests in the cause of the resurrected apostle of obstruction and national retrogression and of object lessons in national adversity, Grover Cleveland

THE PLACE FOR THE SANTA FE SHOPS.

The desire and efforts of the good people of Stockton for the securing of the location of the repair and construction shops of the Santa Fe Railway are natural and creditable to them. On the other hand, any less activity on the part of the officials and the influential citizens of Oakland would be discreditable to this city. Honors are easy in this matter, so far as the arguments and efforts of the two cities are concerned.

But, in the nature of things, this is a matter of business and administration in which individual representations and influence will play a very small part. The determining factor will be the interests and necessities of the great transcontinental railway system which, for its own good and convenience, has secured Point Richmond as its Pacific Coast terminal. It stands to reason that the main Pacific Coast seat of its construction department must be ultimately actually on the Coast and near this terminal. For the former Valley Road, Stockton was the proper place for its shops. For the now nationally extended system, Oakland is the only place.

The new keynote of Oriental national expansion has made Oakland, more signally and specifically than San Francisco, the destined industrial and transportation seat for international traffic. Here, on this landward side of the bay, in time all of the transcontinental and ocean-carrying lines must converge. Those which temporarily make San Francisco their terminus will presently be compelled to take Oakland for the depot of their freight traffic. Here must come all of the great main yards, warehouses, stockyards, and construction shops. The men who are now laying out the plans for the Santa Fe may be presumed to know their business. They are men of large perspective. They will avail themselves of Oakland's incomparable and commanding advantages of population, living economies, geographical facilities, harborage and situation.

While these are the considerations that must in the main determine them in their choice of Oakland, it becomes our citizens and officials to show no lack of hospitality and public spirit in welcoming all new friends who are constrained to take advantage of our resources.

The conference at Sacramento this afternoon on the Senatorial situation is a long step in the right direction. No matter whether such a meeting be given the title of caucus, conference or what not, it is certain that the only way of adjusting the existing difficulties is by the representatives of the various candidates assembling and discussing among themselves how they can come to some agreement. It is certain that if they continue leaving it to the candidates to settle the difficulties for them, there will be no end to the deadlock, for each man in the race figures some way in which he can win, and naturally therefore will not even consider a proposition that retires him altogether.

HIS LIVING MONUMENT.

That was a monument more enduring and incomparably more useful, than any conceivable specimen of mere mortuary architecture which Mr. Claus Spreckels has provided for his memory in Golden Gate Park. His appropriation of a monumental structure for the purposes of a music stand, to be created by San Francisco architects, at a cost of sixty thousand dollars, as a gift to the citizens of San Francisco, is a benefaction as delicate and many-sided as it is munificent. It is a premium and stimulus to art in California. It is, and will be forever, an agent for the cultivation of the popular taste, as well as a source of delight and aesthetic benefit to the coming generations. Not the least of its benefits will be its influence as an object lesson and an inspiration to coming generations of wealthy Californians, for the most effective investment of their available means for the higher pleasures and refinement of the public. Were this the only notable benefaction conferred by Mr. Claus Spreckels upon his fellow citizens, it would be a monument which all of them might envy and admire, and which the more affluent of them might do well to emulate.

North Dakota must either contain an unusually large proportion of crusty old bachelors and disappointed widowers or else it is aspiring to a high plane of ethics on the subject of marriage. It has long been noted for the ease with which the matrimonially-disappointed can obtain a divorce there, and now it is about to pass a bill for the appointment of a commission of three physicians in each county for the examination of all applicants for marriage licenses. The gushing bride with false hair, false teeth and padded figure will doubtless fight shy of that State lest by some chance one of the examiners give the snap away.

NOTED BRAZILIAN DIPLOMAT DEAD.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The death is announced in Rio Janeiro of Count B. F. Toras de Barros, a distinguished diplomat, aged 70 years. He had twice been a member of the Brazilian diplomatic corps at Washington. His last post was at Caracas, Venezuela, where he was for six years Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Brazil. At the conclusion of his service there he was placed on the retired list about ten years ago on account of failing health. During the visit of the Emperor of Brazil, Dom Pedro II, to this country in 1876, Count de Barros was a member of his suite. He did much to contribute to the success of the Brazilian exhibit at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia during that year.

America's Greatest Medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it was originated and is still prepared by competent, experienced and educated pharmacists from the best known alterative, diuretic, anti-bilious remedies and stomach tonics, by a combination, proportion and process unknown to other remedies and giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla merit peculiar to itself. It has a record of cures unequalled in the history of medicine. It has accomplished many a marvelous cure when all other medicines failed, and even when cure seemed impossible,—and really was impossible by any other medicine than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has effected wonderful cures of scrofula, salt rheum, psoriasis, blood poisoning, boils, pimples, rheumatism, catarrh and other troubles originating in or promoted by impure state or low condition of the blood. It has cured thousands of cases of dyspepsia, indigestion, nervous dyspepsia, gastritis, catarrh in the stomach and other kindred troubles. It has given nerve, brain and mental strength in cases of nervous prostration and nervous debility, cured that tired feeling and loss of appetite.

CHOCTAW'S LIFE IN THE BALANCE

He Will Be Shot at Noon Unless a Reprieve Reaches Him.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SOUTH M'ALLISTER, I. T., Feb. 27.—Walla Tonaka, the Choctaw Indian who achieved national notoriety by touring the West with a baseball team while under sentence of death, is in peril for the third time. Unless a United States Deputy Sheriff who started from here to serve a writ of habeas corpus granted Saturday afternoon by Judge Clayton of the Indian Territory Federal Court reaches the scene of execution in time to prevent, Walla Tonaka will be shot at noon today in Aliken, Wolf county, in the heart of the Choctaw.

Twice before Walla Tonaka has been nearer to death than he is now, but the roads were not so bad then, and the courier could make better time. The crime for which Tonaka is to die is the murder of his uncle, Lampson Young, who was an Indian Deputy Sheriff, a year ago last summer. Tonaka and two companions were carousing and became so boisterous that Tonaka's uncle attempted to arrest them. They resisted, and in the melee that followed, Young was shot dead. All three were arrested, but as there were not witnesses to the murder and none of the trio would testify against the others, the guilt was not fixed. A Choctaw jury, however, convicted Walla Tonaka, and he was sentenced to be shot August 6, 1897.

But Walla Tonaka had another engagement on that date. He was a member of the Choctaw baseball team, was under contract to play in Kansas City on the day for the execution, and was to follow this with a tour of the West. Walla Tonaka was the best player on the team, and could not be spared, so it was arranged to postpone the execution by appealing to the Supreme Council of the tribe. A respite was easily secured, and in the meantime Tonaka was free to play ball.

During all this time he was absolutely free so far as physical interests were concerned, and only his pride in the tribal honor was depended upon for his appearance for a rehearing and for execution. The faith in him was not misplaced, as it is said it has never been in the case of a Choctaw, and when his case came up for review in the Department Council he was on hand to hear the decision. The review was merely formal, as it was expected it would be. The sentence of the lower court was affirmed, and the execution settled for November 6th in Aliken.

Still no restraint was placed on Walla Tonaka, and he appeared in Aliken, ready to be shot by his two best friends, as the Choctaw custom required. Had he failed to do so, the Choctaw that met him would have shot him, and his memory would have been reviled for generations.

All preparations had been made for the execution and thousands of Choctaws from all parts of the nation, some of whom had been on the road for three days, were there to witness it. Half an hour before the time set a reprieve came from the Choctaw capital, and Walla Tonaka had a new lease of life.

The execution was then set for April be wiv dorahtreb did 10th, and again Walla Tonaka seems to have been on the brink of the grave, but again a reprieve was received just in time to save his life. The case was then delayed for months because the clash between the Federal and Territorial authorities and the execution was delayed until today.

The chief was appealed to again, but refused to interfere, and as a last resort a writ of habeas corpus was asked for in the Federal Court here.

It was granted and a deputy started with it for Aliken, but it is doubtful if he can make the eighty miles overland in time to stop the execution.

TANU WILL GET SAMOAN CROWN.

America and England Combine Against Germany.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says:

As indicating the friendly purpose of the German government to bring the Samoan controversy to a settlement satisfactory to the United States, Herr Salf, the newly elected president of the Municipal Council of Apia, will come to the United States before proceeding to his post, to confer with Secretary Hay and other Administration officials. Herr Salf will succeed Herr Raffel, who left Apia on February 22d for Berlin, where he will be compelled to make a report explanation of his conduct at Apia. Herr Salf is now on duty in one of the German possessions in Africa, and he has been instructed to proceed to Berlin.

It was stated today that the Samoan question has never been at a danger point, as has been reported, but fault has been displayed on both sides, and Germany and the United States propose to take action to restore order. Herr Rose will probably be removed, and Chief Justice Chambers is expected to be recalled.

Chief Justice Chambers' recall will not be due to his decision or to his course, but to the letter he wrote to his brother and which contained statements objectionable to the German government, which have been communicated to the State Department. The officials say his usefulness has gone, to some extent, as the result of his letter and Germany has intimated that she would be pleased if some other person was appointed as his successor.

Within ten days it is expected that reports will be received from the three Consuls fully explaining their acts, and when these have been considered, action will be taken by the two governments.

There is one other point—speaking of Samoa—which remains to be settled by diplomatic negotiation. Germany will insist that Mataafa, by reason of the overwhelming majority he received at the election, shall be King, but the decision of the Chief Justice and the protocol of the Berlin treaty exclude him forever from consideration in connection with the kingship.

The Administration proposes to support Tanu. Great Britain is similarly inclined, and as a majority rules, he will probably be established on the

A Tribute to the Flag.

A very bright little army woman [illegible] to the occasion a few days ago when she was one of the guests at a smart luncheon given at one of the large hotels for some distinguished New England people. It was a large affair, and in an impromptu manner a number of toasts were given. In the midst of it the little army woman with horror heard some one say:

"We have among us the wife of an officer in the regular army, and I think it is only fitting that she should respond to the toast 'The Flag.'" The men applauded, and the women smiled encouragement, and, trembling a little as she held up the glass of wine, the officer's wife spoke:

"I belong to a class of women to whom the flag is especially near and dear. All day it waves over the roofs of our little homes in the far frontier, and at sundown the rustle of its folds, mingled with the notes of 'The Star-Spangled Banner,' is the lullaby of our babies. We know that it will be the winding sheet of those dearest to us. Since the word Santiago has been written in our hearts I see yet more in this flag—in its red, the blood of our martyrs; in the white, the paleness of their ashen faces; in the blue, the lips set with the word 'Freedom,' and the stars the souls that will shine on forever."

Administrator of the estate of Lizzie Hanson, deceased.

Dated, Oakland, Feb'y 25th, 1899.
GEO. E. DE GOLIA, Att'y for Administrator.

Woman's power is largely dependent upon her ability to interest, entertain, attract and please. It is for this reason that women strive to become accomplished. They study in order that they may converse intelligently on all subjects. They strive to become good musicians, graceful dancers and amiable hostesses.

All accomplishments are unavailing if a woman suffers from ill-health in a womanly way. The special weakness peculiar to the womanly organism, will rapidly wreck the general health. The sufferer will lose her natural vivacity, her wit, her good looks, and the ambition and power to display the accomplishments at her command. Any woman affected in this way should resort to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a wonderful medicine for ailing women. It is the invention of an eminent and skillful physician, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. It aims to cure but one class of diseases, and claims to be good for nothing else. It imparts health, elastic strength, vigor and virility to the delicate feminine organs. It prepares a woman for wifehood and motherhood.

Mrs. Ramon Sanchez, Penasco, Taos County, N. Mex., in a letter to Dr. Pierce says: "From a grateful heart my voice goes up to God both night and day in a solemn prayer that He may guard your health and preserve your life. I hereby express my gratitude to you for the relief I have received from your wonderful medicine, 'Favorite Prescription.' After suffering years of misery I am to-day a healthy and happy wife, and can truthfully recommend to women the use of the 'Favorite Prescription' as a regulator of the monthly periods."

DR. DODSON ON THE SOCIALISTS.

Pastor Gives His Views on Principles of the Party.

Rev. George Dodson of the First Unitarian Church of Alameda delivered an address before the Socialist Labor Party last evening at Grand Army Hall. The subject discussed was "The Case of the Anti-Socialist." While not agreeing with all the doctrines of the Socialist Party, Mr. Dodson was in harmony with a great many of their views. He declared that the present existing evils were due to the characteristics of human nature and would be likely to manifest themselves under a regime of Socialism. He thought the combination of capital into trusts were movements toward Socialism which tended to eliminate competition. He spoke in part as follows:

"Government according to the democratic principles of our nation has not worked as it was expected to by a good deal, but we are not at all ready to acknowledge that it is a failure, though a failure it is in some respects. We do not bring about the condition that we work for and expect, and are not able to elect the sort of men we want to office.

"It is a fact that by present methods it is generally impossible for the best men to win at the polls. The man who gets the votes is the man who is able to go 'round and be companionable with everybody, kissing babies and paying compliments right and left. This man is usually just the sort of individual we should try to keep out of office, but he gets in.

"Under a collectivistic system we might look for the same imperfections of administration that exist now. The State would have a right to say whether a man should be a scavenger or a professor of music. There would be the same exercise of corrupt influences, the pulls and the hardships to settle these things that there are now in political affairs."

AFRAID OF THE "HOODOO" ENGINE.

Railroad Men Want the Company to Take Action.

The members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and of the firemen's organization, have decided to boycott Engine No. 19, which is known on the Narrow Gauge road as the "hoodoo." This engine has a record as a death-dealer, its latest victims being Engineer Jonas and the fireman, Colson, who accompanied him on the fatal trip, which culminated in wreck and death in Alameda recently. Engine 19, has been repaired at the Newark shops and is now ready to go on the road again. No engineer will take it out, not so much on superstition as from real fear that the engine.

The railroad men declare that from the time of the first run of the engine it has been a "hoodoo," and its accident record seems to warrant this conclusion.

Now the intention is to send a petition to the Superintendent asking that the locomotive be not again put in service. If this has no weight, the men are ready to refuse to man it.

BROTHERS FIGHT AT THE WEDDING.

Nuptial Celebration in Fruitvale May End Fatally.

As the result of a family row at the wedding of Miss Louise Perry, of Fruitvale, yesterday Manuel Perry, her brother, is lying in the Receiving Hospital in a precarious condition while Julius Perry, another brother, is occupying a cell in the County Jail charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Manuel Mantel and Miss Perry were united in marriage at the Perry home in Valdez street in Fruitvale, yesterday afternoon. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to celebrate. The story goes that after indulging too freely in red wine the brothers became involved in a row over an attempt on the part of Manuel to choke his parents. Julius picked up a large walrus tusk with which he beat Manuel over the head, inflicting injuries which may prove fatal.

The injured man was removed to the Receiving Hospital and later Constable Quinlan arrested Julius and placed him in the County Jail where he will be held pending the result of his brother's wounds.

FARMER NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Albert Brown, a Mission San Jose farmer lost a horse and narrowly escaped death while felling a tree in Niles Canyon Saturday. To prevent the tree from falling into the creek, Brown hitched his team to the trunk just as it was about to fall. The horses could not prevent the tree from falling down the embankment and the team was dragged over with it. A branch impaled one of the animals killing it almost instantly. The former narrowly escaped being buried beneath the tree. He was badly bruised and cut.

A young man in Barre, Vt., twenty-two years of age, had acquired the horrid cigarette habit, and for five years was such a slave to the craving that his health was all used up. He was finally influenced by a good woman, who took an interest in him, to make an effort to break away from the disgusting practice, and for the headache, heartburn and other ills incident to the loss of the accustomed stimulant she induced him to take a Ripans Tabule whenever occasion required. He is now entirely cured, and for the good health he now enjoys gives R·I·P·A·N·S all the credit. He still takes a Tabule now and then if any craving or other indication of his former weakness threatens or overtakes him.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be had of grocers, general storekeepers, news agents and at liquor stores and bar-er shops.

The Oakland Paving Co With the benefit of twenty years' experience in a quarry, the rock from which is the hardest, toughest and most durable yet used for macadamizing in this State, will execute municipal and private contracts for all branches of street work and will continue to fill orders for the shipment of its rock to other cities. Office—Rooms 321-322, Central Bank Building, Oakland, Cal.

PAY DIVIDENDS OUT OF CAPITAL.

Common Form of Stock Swindling in England.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The Times' London financial correspondent cables:

Business in a general way continues good, but we are not quite so happy as I thought we were going to be. We are afflicted by a multitude of small worries incident to empire. Money has been rather dearer, too, this last week, but was not so scarce on Friday as was expected. The amount borrowed at the Bank of England was therefore moderate, and discount rates are already giving way. Bills to arrive early in March are being taken at 2 per cent. The squeeze, in fact, is quite temporary, caused by a conjunction of Stock Exchange pay day and the distribution of over £5,700,000 in railway dividends. Next month, however, the short money market is bound to be less easy than it has been since the new year, although there is no reason to expect a great scarcity of cash. Firm money and weak discount are most probable.

Still we are not wholly happy. Our croakers see a big deficit of £1,000,000 or more in the national income at the end of the fiscal year on March 31, and they predict more of an income tax. A deficit of some amount is certain, because we are spending about £45,000,000 on our army and navy this year and mean to exceed that total next year. But the government can avoid taxation if it likes by suspending the wasteful terminable annuities, under whose operation our debt is being redeemed. That would set free about £4,000,000, I estimate, and enable us to waste our substance in comfort of mind for a few years more. It would be a terrible affair if we were obliged to cut down our naval program. Tremendous labor troubles must follow at once, and with them the disorganization of the iron and steel trades.

On the Stock Exchange the strength and calmness that have prevailed are nothing short of wonderful, when we discover the apprehensions excited by the sudden death of President Faure and the state of Paris. Prices have been well supported and a large amount of business has gone on, chiefly, however, of the supeculative kind, and still in mine shares more than in American railroads. What course the market will take toward these latter seemed less clear last week than the week before, but I think the situation sprang from a slight trepidation about money rates more than anything else. Certainly our people and newspapers have received the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific scheme well, not enthusiastically, it is true, but sensibly, and have adopted it. With more such stumbling blocks put to one side, a clearer course for a well-sustained advance in prices is open. But you must continue to lead, as a falling wheat market alone will frighten off our still timid buyers.

Our millwall docks scandal, a petty affair in itself, illustrates one of our commonest stock vices—the habit of paying dividends out of the capital. The millwall people collected less revenue than they paid away in dividends, and so carried accounts in their books as still due that had been paid years ago, and sold fresh preference stock from time to time to make good the gap. In this way debts due the company rose from £22,000 to £250,000 in the course of a few years. Many companies play the same trick, either by writing up leaseholds or refraining from writing down or charging repairs and renewals against the capital, thus eating up their substance and leaving the husks to posterity.

Sad News for a Father.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Feb. 27.—Edward Hampton, Company H, Second Oregon Regiment, who was killed near Manila on February 22, is thought to be the son of F. Hampton of this city. Young Hampton left home for the Klondike about two years ago, and the first his father knew of his enlistment was when he read the account of his death.

AFTER THE SANTA FE SHOPS.

Effort to Be Made to Secure Prize For This City.

The officials of the Santa Fe Company have not yet arrived at a decision as to where they will locate the company's big shops. Both Oakland and Stockton are after the prize. A number of gentlemen in this city are moving in the matter and will try and have the shops located here. The prize is worth looking for and no time is to be lost in working up the proposition. The views of a few prominent citizens on the subject are as follows:

W. R. Thomas, Mayor of Oakland—It is of prime importance to Oakland that immediate and positive action be taken to secure this great industrial addition to the city's development. These shops would bring business, and such a large increase in that class of population which is most, desirable—skilled mechanics—we cannot afford to overlook the opportunity. I believe that proper inducement could be made to the Santa Fe officials to give us favorable consideration. The city officials will certainly co-operate in any move which may be made. The Santa Fe terminal committee will undoubtedly be called together again to handle this subject.

Wilbur Walker, Secretary of the Oakland Merchants' Exchange—The Merchants' Exchange has appointed a committee to investigate the subject, but it is necessary to move speedily because other cities will bid hard for the site. This is a subject which appeals to every interest in this city. The commercial houses of Oakland should unite and use every legitimate influence to forward the claims of our city. Co-operation is necessary. I am satisfied that now with public attention directed to the subject there will be immediate steps taken for an active campaign.

M. J. Keller, merchant—Oakland is a natural terminal for a railroad system. There is no question but that the Santa Fe shops should be here. The Board of Trade and the Merchants' Exchange should take this matter in hand at once. The city should be kept closely in touch with every move of the Santa Fe railroad and not miss a single point. I am ready to lend what influence I have to the efforts.

Albert Brown, formerly chief of the bridge building department of the Southern Pacific—Oakland or the east bay shore presents every advantage for the location of the shops, especially for handling of coal and other material. There is also the advantage over valley points in climate, securing best results from labor. I do not believe Stockton will be selected.

Charles H. Butler, merchant—Oakland should do something for itself. This enterprise would mean the disbursement of many thousands of dollars annually in this city. Some organized effort should be put forth to awaken public interest. We usually bestir ourselves after the opportunity has been lost. Should these terminal shops be located here it would be the greatest event since the first overland road was completed.

FINE METHODIST HOSPITAL TO BE BUILT IN CHICAGO

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Methodists of Chicago are to begin the erection of a great hospital in the spring at the northeast corner of Twenty-fifth and Dearborn streets. It is to be built by the Wesleyan Hospital Association, and is to replace the temporary structure now on that site. The cost of the new building will be $200,000.

The plans provide for the most modern hospital construction an equipment in every particular, which will make it the most complete institution of the kind in the city.

Robert D. Shepperd, president of the Wesley Hospital Board, pledged $150,000 of the amount at the February meeting of the Executive Committee, provided the other members of the committee would raise $50,000. Of the latter amount $6,000 has already been pledged, and it is expected the remainder will be subscribed soon.

According to the present plans, the new hospital will be a six-story stone and brick building, with a total capacity of 250 beds.

TROUBADOURS AT THE MACDONOUGH

"Fogg's Ferry" at the Dewey Opera House.

At the Macdonough Theater next Wednesday and Thursday nights, March 1st and 2d, the Black Patti Troubadours appear.

The Black Patti Troubadours is credited with making the biggest hit of all the attractions appearing in New York this past season. Their phenomenally successful engagement at the great Pleasure Palace has gone on record as one of the marvels of the metropolis.

Every performance given at that palatial play house was attended by ultra fashionable audiences, which crowded the auditorium from pit to dome.

The only difference between Black Patti's Troubadours' stylish audiences era on subscription nights was in the era on subscription nights was' in the manner in which the performances were received. Those who favored the Troubadours had no inclination to indulge in social gossip, because of the irresistible and fascinating charm of the stage performance. It seems to be a show that not only attracts the multitude, but rivets attention and satisfies the discriminating taste.

THE DEWEY.

At the Dewey Theater tonight there will be a scenic revival of "Fogg's Ferry," that pretty melo-drama which became so popular with the ingenue, Minnie Maddern, in the role of "Chip." The play will run all through the week. A strong company will appear. Miss Maddern's part will be essayed by Jessie Norton. It will receive a clever rendition because it is a character which is especially adapted to the talents of this favorite actress. There is a number of sensational scenes in the play and there are also several amusing situations, which will no doubt greatly please the patrons of this theater.

Berkeley Republicans Nominate Their Candidates.

BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—The Republicans of Berkeley made a strategic move at their convention Saturday night that takes the Good Government Club out of the field as a rival. They nominated the club's candidates with a few exceptions, one of them being Marshal Lloyd, who is a Democrat. Two years ago the Republicans fought the Good Government ticket at the polls, and came out considerably the worse for the encounter, as the club candidates were elected.

When Chairman Lee F. Hampton called the convention to order Saturday night there were 105 delegates present representing the seven wards of the city. E. T. Harms was chosen temporary chairman and at once appointed a Platform Committee, consisting of W. C. Moran, E. C. Marllave, H. C. Barrow, J. E. Streightif, H. Cripps, A. A. Schuster and P. Redmond.

The platform reported and adopted demands the vigorous enforcement of the one-mile limit law and the abolition of the office of City Superintendent of Schools. The latter plank is in the form of a resolution, stating that certain funds now expended by the School Department ought to be put to different uses.

The ticket nominated is as follows:

Trustees—First ward, W. H. Marston; Third ward, E. Q. Turner; Fifth ward, R. Staats; Seventh ward, W. Mulholland.

School Directors—First ward, F. F. Connor; Third ward, J. R. Little; Fifth ward, A. T. Sutherland; Seventh ward, Thomas Wilson.

Library Trustees at Large—S. D. Waterman, H. D. Erwin, A. W. Naylor, A. F. Lange, C. W. Davis.

Treasurer—John Squires.

Assessor—Isaac Wells.

Marshal—Robert Stewart.

Clerk—M. L. Hanscom.

The basket ball game Saturday afternoon at Harmon Gymnasium, on the college campus, between the University girls and the young ladies of Mills College, Oakland, resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 15 to 0. The building was crowded with ladies, but no spectators of the opposite sex were admitted. Despite the one-sided score, the Mills College girls played an excellent game, excelling their opponents in dash and quickness. What won the game for the latter was superior weight and team work.

The girls lined up as follows:

Mills College—Miss J. Burnett, forward; Miss J. Ellson, forward; Miss B. Jackson, forward; Miss E. Field, center; Miss E. Gardiner, center; Miss O. Reuger, center; Miss A. McMurray, guard; Miss M. Coyle, guard; Miss H. Wallace, guard.

California—Miss A. J. Kelshaw, forward; Miss T. V. Stoer, forward; Miss A. J. Farno, forward; Miss L. A. Linscoot, center; Miss S. Hanscom, center; Miss G. Longmore, center; Miss A. Stockwell, guard; Miss E. Stockwell, guard; Miss M. Haworth, guard.

Miss Edith Brownsill and Mrs. Walter M. Magee acted as umpires for the University of California and Miss H. D. Ege for Mills. The halves were twenty minutes each.

ALAMEDA NEWS.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—Saturday night the new City Central Committee of the Harmonie Hall party met and organized. Captain H. A. Thompson, chairman of the old committee, was re-elected chairman of the new committee and Henry Muller, secretary of the old committee, beat W. B. Hinchman for that office by a vote of 7 to 5. Two members were absent. It is expected that meetings of the committee will be held every Thursday night.

GOES AS A BRIDE TO SACRAMENTO.

A pretty home wedding took place in San Leandro Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. A. K. Anderson when her grand-daughter, Miss Louise E. Watkins, was united in marriage to J. Allison Bruner of Sacramento. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Dille of Oakland. The bride was attired in a very handsome soft white taffeta gown, ornamented with pearls and duchess lace and carried a bouquet of Nellie Hobart pinks and ferns.

Miss Lucy Sturtevant of San Jose acted as bridesmaid and was attired in yellow organdie. Edward A. Watkins, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride is well known in Oakland, being a graduate of the Oakland High School and a member of the Young Ladies' Orchestra. Mr. Bruner is a partner in the law office of Bruner Brothers of Sacramento and until the past couple of years was a resident of San Leandro. Only relatives and intimate friends of the bride were present. There were many elegant and costly gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruner have gone to Del Monte, where they will spend a couple of weeks, and on their return will go to Sacramento to reside.

Bad Results From Monkey Bite.

The ten-year-old son of Matthew Stord of 407 Jefferson street may lose his hand as the result of a monkey bite. A few days ago he and some other boys were teasing some monkeys in a cage on Eleventh street. One of the monkeys bit young Stord's finger. No attention was paid to the wound until it began to swell. Dr. Hamlin was called in and pronounced it a case of blood poisoning. He stated that the boy would be lucky if he did not lose his hand.

POTTERY TRUST PROVES A FIASCO

Plans of Its Promoters Meet With a Hitch.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The Herald says that the American Pottery Company, with its burden of $30,000,000 capitalization, is likely to fall in its purpose of uniting the potteries. Jefferson Seligman, who has been active in promoting the company, is quoted as saying:

"We have subscribed $1,000,000 to the project, and other large houses have contributed considerable large amounts. The combination looked feasible, and if it could be carried out, doubtless would be very profitable. But the affairs of the company are not particularly satisfactory just now. How they will eventually develop remains to be seen, but if everything is not made satisfactory we will withdraw."

J. and W. Seligman & Co. were credited with being the promoters of the American Pottery Company, which was incorporated in Trenton, N. J., on December 16 of last year. There were to be 270,000 shares at a par value of $100. One hundred and thirty-five thousand of these shares were preferred, on which the interest was to be 7 per cent. The incorporators were Charles N. King, Ernest T. Charles and T. Frank Farrell. Ninety per cent of the potteries in the country, it was asserted, would join the combine, and the plan was to leave the market east of Pittsburg to the Trenton concern, and West Virginia and East Liverpool, Ohio, would supply the rest.

SHARP AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

The Death of Anna K. Jacobson Charged to Him.

The remains of Miss Anna Jacobson lie at the morgue, death having been occasioned, according to an ante-mortem statement made by her, by a criminal operation performed by Dr. J. C. Sharp of this city.

The deceased was 27 years of age and came to this city from Suisun. She took a room in an Eighth street lodging house, where it is alleged she was attended by Dr. Sharp.

Soon after Dr. Sharp had left the woman called Dr. Lamb of San Francisco to attend her.

Blood poisoning had set in and Dr. Lamb called in Drs. Fearn and Derrick. It was apparent to the surgeons that the young woman's life could not be saved. She was informed of the fact, whereupon she made an ante-mortem statement, in which she charged Dr. Sharp with having performed the operation which was to cause her death.

As soon as these facts were brought to the attention of Coroner Mehrmann he ordered the arrest of Dr. Sharp.

Detective Quigley was detailed to make the arrest, but found that Sharp was at neither his office nor his residence.

In the statement made by the dying woman to Drs. Fearn and Derrick, a farmer of Suisun Valley named Henry Carpenter, Jr., was charged with being responsible for her trouble.

Sharp has been mixed up in several cases of this nature lately, the last of which was that of a woman named Hulda Johnson.

Sharp was accused of murder in that case, but was acquitted.

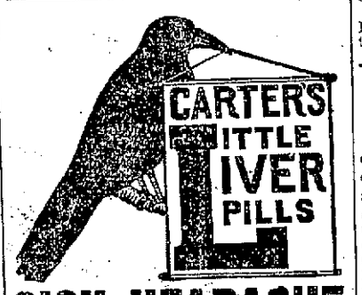

ASSAILED AT HER DOORSTEP.

Last Saturday night Mrs. N. Hanifin, residing at 1304 San Pablo avenue, was struck by a man and thrown to the sidewalk while about to enter her residence. Immediately after she had been knocked down her assailant fled. Mrs. Hanifin's son soon appeared on the scene on a wheel and, when he heard of the attack on his mother, started in pursuit of the assailant, but failed to find him.

At the time of the assault Mrs. Hanifin had a purse in her hand, but managed to conceal it from her assailant. The police suspect that the assault was committed by a man who is a resident in the neighborhood of Mrs. Hanifin.

DEROULEDE IS A HUGE JOKE.

He Will Not Get the Crown of Martyrdom He Seeks.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A dispatch to the Herald from Paris says:

There is only one man in France who takes Paul Deroulede's escapade tragically, and that is Deroulede himself.

He is anxious for a sensational trial with a heavy sentence that will crown him with the martyr's halo for his followers. He accordingly is doing all he can to exaggerate his offense by declaring orally to the officials his design to overturn the Republic and writing letters to the same effect.

Nobody else, however, looks upon him as anything but a lunatic. As a journalist here said, the worst punishment that could be given to Deroulede would be to confine him as non compos mentis.

It is evident that the affair was not so serious as some papers have tried to make out. General Roget's own statement brings the attempt down to its proper proportions. Some hysterical individuals have been calling the General saviour of France, but he sarcastically pointed out to a correspondent of the Petit Bleu that revolutions are not made with a single infantry brigade, and that he has saved nothing, seeing there was not anything in danger.

SHARPSHOOTERS ARE ANNOYING.

Otherwise All Is Quiet and Peaceful in Manila.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

MANILA, Feb. 27, (11:55 A. M.)—Except for an occasional volley and some individual firing by the rebels from the jungle near Caloocan, along the river and in the vicinity of San Pedro Macati, all was quiet along the entire line last night. The enemy's sharpshooters at Caloocan continue to annoy soldiers in the daytime, but the Americans no longer pay much attention to them, reserving their fire until the rebels appear in the open in sufficient force to justify a volley or an occasional shell.

During the night time the men are accustomed to the enemy's salutes, and a majority of them remain undisturbed, secured by the outposts and sentries.

In Manila absolute quiet prevails. The streets are deserted and nothing sounds to be heard after 10 o'clock in the evening are the tramp of the patrols and sentries and the occasional canter of the hoofs of an officer's horse.

The insurance companies, after a conference, have decided to accept war risks at an additional premium of 5½ per cent per month.

EMBARGO RAISED ON OUR FRUITS.

No Examination Will Be Required by Germany.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—The officials of the German foreign office have notified the United States Embassy that the government will henceforth admit American oranges, lemons and raisins without examination, and also that all American fresh and dried fruits will be allowed to pass in bond through Germany without being examined. The decisions are based on the favorable reports of the German experts sent to America.

The question whether dried fruit sent abroad is harmless, especially for the transmission of San Jose scale and other insects, and whether the fruit may be imported without previous examination, has not yet been decided.

The probability is that the decision will be favorable to American interests.

The officials of the United States Embassy have cabled the above facts to the authorities at Washington.

THROWN FROM HIS WAGON AND INJURED.

A. Rempke, a driver for the Palace Bakery, met with a serious accident yesterday. As he was driving over the Eighth street bridge his horse became frightened at a pile driver. Rempke was thrown beneath the wheels of his wagon and run over. He was so badly injured that he had to lie where he was thrown until an Eighth street car came along. He was placed on board the car and taken to his home, 561 Seventh street.

The horse was caught at the narrow gauge depot after it had freed itself from the wagon.

Wanted a Divorce.

John St. John and William Bruton were arrested yesterday by Officer Kyte in West Oakland while they were driving in a buggy which they had taken without leave. The rig belonged to Kane & Daley's stables. At the time it was taken it was hitched to a post in front of a residence on Nineteenth street and San Pablo avenue.

ROWED TO HIS DEATH.

Fatal Gun Accident to Plucky Young Chris Miller.

Chris Miller, a young teamster employed by P. J. Shafter, died at the Receiving Hospital last night, after a most remarkable experience. His death was caused by loss of blood from the arteries of his arm.

He had gone out rowing on the estuary, taking a shotgun with him in the hope of getting some ducks. While far away from land he espied his game, but in raising his gunt the hammer fell and a full load of shot struck his arm, shattering bone and arteries.

Though crazed with pain, Miller rowed his skiff a mile to shore with one hand. On reaching the Broadway wharf he dropped unconscious.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. H. Horr did everything he could to save his life, but the lad died at 11 o'clock.

The unfortunate but plucky lad was well known in Oakland, where he has lived for many years. He resided with his mother at Fruitvale avenue and twenty-sixth street, East Oakland, for the past two years.

FOOTPAD FIGHTS FOR FREEDOM.

Arrested for Highway Robbery He Gives Battle.

Frank Smith is the name given by a prisoner now lodged in the County Jail, who, after committing highway robbery, tried to brain his captors and thus escape from their custody. He is a young Portuguese, and was taken to the County Jail at 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

Soren Paulsen, a Fruitvale dairyman, was the victim of the alleged footpad. While driving along Park avenue toward Alameda about 1 o'clock this morning, he was stopped at a point about 100 yards south of the broad-gauge railroad crossing by a couple of men, who commanded him to climb down off the seat of his wagon. Paulsen lost no time in obeying, and his movements were somewhat hastened by the appearance of a couple of pistols. The highwaymen relieved Paulsen of $7 in cash and a pocket knife. They then ordered him to head for Oakland.

Paulsen informed Deputy Sheriff Quinlan of the hold-up and gave the officer a description of the two men, which led to the arrest of Smith a short time later and his landing in the Alameda City Prison.

Quinlan ran across the man just as he was leaving a saloon near the tidal canal bridge. When ordered to throw up his hands and surrender, Smith made a grab for the officer. The movement was so sudden that Quinlan was taken off his guard, and before he could recover himself the two were rolling on the ground engaged in a rough and tumble fight. Quinlan succeeded in subduing Smith and brought him to the Alameda jail. When the prisoner was searched, Paulsen's knife and part of the stolen coin were found on him.

Paulsen swore to a complaint before Justice Larue of East Oakland and Quinlan went to the Alameda jail to remove the prisoner to the County Jail.

As soon as he passed the doorway leading out of Chief Conrad's office, Smith attempted to trip Quinlan, and calling, made a dash down the corridor and rush up the inside stairway leading to the upper stories of the City Hall. Being Sunday, the doors to the main entrance were closed, and the desperate prisoner found himself trapped.

Sheriff Rogers and Police Officer Gunn guarded the exits of the hall, while Quinlan and Sergeant Schroeder went up after Smith.

Then the prisoner gave battle and fought the officers like a demon. It was finally necessary to club him almost into insensibility before he could be handcuffed and taken to the County Jail. His accomplice in the hold-up is still at large.

BOTTOMLY CHANGES HIS RESIDENCE.

Isaac Bottomly, who has figured prominently in sporting circles as a promoter of dog fights, has changed his residence from this county to Redwood canyon, Contra Costa county. Bottomly recently served a term in the county jail for having a dog fight take place at his home near Temescal.

ALAMEDA BOY'S THRILLING RIDE.

Drives a Runaway Horse Through the Streets of Alameda.

Roy Greenough, the 5-year-old son of Mrs. Kate Greenough of Alameda caused a commotion yesterday morning by lashing a runaway horse which he drove the length of Alameda without accident. That he came out of the thrilling experience without injury is due in a great measure to the daring of P. R. Glissman of 840 Telegraph avenue, who overtook the horse and brought him to a standstill.

The horse belongs to W. E. Bryon of the West End, and had been driven to the Christian Church by Mrs. J. R. Morris and Miss Eva Sharp. While they were attending services the horse was tied outside. Young Greenough took advantage of the opportunity to play horse. He climbed into the rig, and taking the reins in one hand and the whip in the other, proceeded to enjoy a drive. As the horse paid little attention the youngster gave it a cut with the whip, which caused the frightened animal to lunge forward, breaking the hitching strap. Finding itself free and urged on by the youthful driver, the horse started on a wild race down Encinal avenue. The youngster applied the whip freely, shouting with glee at the exhileration. Several attempts were made to stop the runaway without success until Glissman, who was riding his wheel along the avenue, took a hand in the game. After a hard ride the wheelman overtook the horse and brought it to a stop.

The outfit was taken to the police station, where the owners afterward secured the rig. Young Greenough quietly slipped away, none the worse for his wild ride.

ORANG OUTANG A GOOD SEAMAN

Promising Tar's Career Cut Short By Death.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 26.—Captain F. Shurtleff of the bark Tobey, which has arrived to load spars for China, tells of a remarkable tale of an experience with a baby orang outang he picked up off the coast of Borneo.

The youngster was found afloat with its mother at the month of a river. The mother was killed and the baby taken captive, and raised on infant food. The captain began teaching the youngster to be a sailor, and had him in line for learning to haul on a brace and help in other deck work. The man-like brute was promising to be a good deck tar, when he was taken down with pneumonia in Hong Kong and died. The captain says he would have been worth hundreds of dollars in America.
